Opportunity for Participation

At RTPV, we believe that joining a congregation is a spiritual and emotional commitment. We encourage all congregants to become involved in all aspects of life in our congregational community. In furthering this ideal, we request that upon signing this application you commit to participate in congregational life. Please indicate which of these areas interest you by checking the appropriate box or boxes. Your participation will help strengthen the community and will make your temple experience more meaningful. You will be contacted by a congregation member with more information.
